OUR BEAUTIFUL FLAG.

Or

THE BONNIE, RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

VIVACE.

f

5. Oh no, the "bon - nie blue flag" With one white ghast - ly star. . . . .

1. Come ral - ly, brothers, rally, a - round the stripes and stars,
2. We're all a band of brothers, we mourn this civ - il strife,

Never shall float be - fore our ranks To lead the brave a - far. . . . . But Fighting the o - dious reb - el flag, that flaunts its tri - ple bars; A Still will we smite the reb - el hand, that seeks our na - tion's life; O blend the hue of sun-set. — The bonnie red, white and blue..... Shall.

ban-ner foul, dis-honored, no em-blem for the free,.... For men of sun-ny Georgia! Brave hearts of Ten-nes-see!..... Ye fire our souls with pa-triot zeal With hope and cour-age true.....

this the bonnie Red, White and the Blue, for ev-er-more must be.....
Tex-as Ro-vers! Raise a-gain the ban-ner of the free.....

shall not harm our beautiful flag, nor quench a sin - gle star!

shall not harm our beautiful flag, nor quench a sin - gle star!

3.

We never wished to harm you, We'll welcome you again,
When you tear down the rebel flag, as brothers and as men.
When Sumter's walls were battered, what could we, freemen, do,
But rally round our beautifut flag, of Red and White and Blue.
Chorus:

4.

But down with South Carolina, that haughty, treacherous state!
Humble her tyrants in the dust, (forever ignobly great.)
But up with the southern poor man! Strike off the captive's chain!
And rally round the starry flag to sing in loud refrain;
